

A binary search tree (BST) is a node-based binary tree data structure. Each node has at most two children